The Multiverse Agent: Book One Destined Universe

I don't own Digimon only this story and this character and what ever character I may put in this story in the future so hope you enjoy the story

Noises could be heard in a vast Forrest in the digital world a boy with black hair and dark blue eyes could be seen running as if his life depend on it and being the digital world it probably did this boy was 5ft wearing a brown jacket and blue top underneath it blue jeans with a pair of Nike air max trainers.

Jason Blake was having a pretty good day, that was of course before he was running for his life from a monster in the middle of a forest. 'How did this happen?' Jason asked him self as he ran.

[Flashback]

Jason was walking to the shop near his house with his brothers to go get bread and milk for his mom because she has been ill the last few days so Jason and his brothers and sister have been helping out around the house.

"Jason!." "What?." Jason said as he look behind him to see that he has past out the shop and his brother Anthony was calling him. Anthony was his oldest brother and always looked out for him even tho he could look after him self Anthony was 20 years old, 6ft2 had black hair and brown eyes he was starting college next semester.

"Should have let him go on would have bin funny to see how long it took him to figure out he past out the shop." His brother Shane commented, "ha ha very funny Shane I'll remember that next time u want help with trying to get Phoebe to go out with you."Jason said to his brother.

Shane was 14 the third oldest and just 2 years older then me and loved to remind me of that he was 5 ft 7 two inches taller then me bit of a bully to but will always have your back. He had black hair and green eyes that with one look u could tell he was going to do something stupid.

>"Shut up I don't like phoebe!" Shane screamed with a blush on his face, you see' phoebe is my best friend Ashley sister and Shane met phoebe one time when we all went to Ashley's for dinner and since then his bin bugging me to introduced him to her,he says its cause he thinks that because me and Ashley get on so well that they will to but I know he likes her,

"Tell your face that then blush boy" my brother James said with a laugh as we walked into the shop. Now James was the odd one out of the family mainly cause of his brown hair and baby blue eyes he was 17 and 6ft 1 just starting his last year of high school.

"Leave Shane alone, can't u see he doesn't like us talking about his girlfriend" Anthony said with a smirk.

"She's not my girlfriend!" Shane shouted.

"But she's a girl" said James.

"And a friend" Jason said

" So she's your girlfriend!" Jason and James said at the same time.

"She's not my girlfriend!" Shane screamed and walked away in a huff.

"You two should leave him alone about Phoebe" Anthony said.

"Maybe but Where would be the fun in that brother" Jason said and James nods to show he was thinking the same thing. Anthony walks away towards the milk and bread while laughing.

"That will be $3.50" the cashier said to Anthony as we put the milk and bread into a bag to carry home.

"There you go keep the change" Anthony said as he gave the man $5.00.

"Thank you" the cashier said as we left the shop and headed home.

"Why don't we go to the cinema later I'm sure there is a good movie out we could watch" Jason said as we was walking home.

"Ya we," BOOM! Anthony was cut off by a building exploding near them

"Let's go see if we can help" Jason said as the people hit by the explosion could be heard screaming for help.

"OK James you and me will see if we can help anyone out of the building, Jason you and,Jason?," Anthony looked around and couldn't see his younger brother anywhere. 'shit dad is going to kill me when he finds out I let Jason go near a burning building',"Shane go call the fire department, meet back here in 10 minutes,got it!"

"Got it" Shane said as he ran to get help.

>"Come on James let's go find Jason and make sure he's safe, so I can kill him" Anthony said as he and James ran towards the burning building to find there stupid brother.

(Seen change)

Jason knew his brother was going to try and get him to do something to keep away from the building but Jason felt that he had to help them he didn't know why but he knew he had to do something other then get help,it was like something was telling him to help,

"Help please some one help my baby is still in there!" a weeping women was screaming for anyone to help her.

"What floor is your baby on?" Jason asked the weeping women.

"The third floor I left him with the baby sitter I don't know why she hasn't come down please his only 2 years old please you have to help him" the women said to Jason

"OK I'll go get him wait here" Jason said and ran towards the burning building not listening to the people around him trying to tell him to stop.

He could feel the heat 100 ft from the building it was so hot he ran for the front entrance and saw there was fire coving it,Jason looked around to see if there was another way in he looked to his left and saw a Broken window and ran for it, once in side he started making his way towards the stairs covering his face with his sleeve to try and keep the smoke out of his lungs' Jason walked into the hallway and ran up the stairs watching out for any debris falling from one of the higher floors.

Jason soon reached the third floor without incident and saw four different doors.

'What one is he in,I need to hurry this building is falling apart ' Jason thought,when he suddenly heard a baby's cry coming from the second door to his left, reacting quickly Jason ran into into the apartment to see a crib and a baby in side it Jason looked around and saw a girl underneath a log that fell from the sealing Jason could tell she was dead from all the blood around the body Jason turns away from the body and went over to picked up the baby and wrapped him with the blanket that was in side the crib to try and stop him from getting burned.

Jason then ran out of the apartment and towards the stairs once at the stairs he quickly went down them but when he got to the second floor stair case he saw that it was destroyed and there was no way down there was to big a gap to jump he was stuck.

'Shit what do I do now?' Jason though as he was looking for another way down but could not find any Jason was about to lose hope when he heard someone calling his name.

"Jason' where are you!" Anthony shouted as he looked around the first floor of the burning building for his little brother.

"Anthony I'm up here!" Jason screamed when he heard his brother calling out to him, once Anthony heard his brother calling him he rushed over to the burned down stair case to the second floor and saw his brother holding a bundle in his hand Anthony realised that bundle must be the baby that the women out side said Jason had come in to get Anthony was relived to see his brother was ok.

"Anthony I can't find away down!" Shouted Jason to his brother, " don't worry I'll think of something!" Anthony shouted back to his brother, Anthony was thinking of anyway to save his little brother but couldn't think of anyway to get him down, Jason seeing his brother trying to think of away to help him but knew there was no way out, Jason saw the flames getting bigger and knew that it wouldn't be long till the hole floor collapsed and they all die Jason knew there was no chance for him to get out of this but maybe he could get the baby out but Jason knew Anthony wouldn't leave the building with out him so Jason knew he had to lie to him.

"Anthony I think I can make the jump but cant with the baby so I'm going to throw him to you, then you get out of here with the baby!" Jason shouted to Anthony praying that Anthony believed the lie,

"OK throw him to me I'll catch him then you get out, I'll be right behind ya ok!" Jason shouted knowing that he wouldn't be able to get out in time but mite just be able to save his brother and the baby in his arms.

"OK but you better be right behind me!" Anthony scream as he prepared to catch the baby.

"OK,get ready, catch!" Jason scream as he through the child to his brother.

Anthony caught the child and looked up to his brother.

"I got him now you!" Anthony screamed to his brother but Jason didn't move.

"I'm sorry but I lied i won't make jump its to far" Jason said with tears in his eyes.

"No I'm not leavening you here where both making it out of here!" Anthony screamed with tears in his eyes not wanting to leave his brother to die in the burning building.

"You have to if you don't leave now its not just me and you who's going to die it be him to" Jason said as he pointed the bundle in Anthony's arms.

"I can't leave you here to die Jason I just can't " Anthony said as tears fell from his eyes.

"Ino Anthony but you have to for the child in your arms if you don't he will die please leave before it is to late" Jason said trying to stay strong and not cry but failing.

Anthony knowing there was no way to save his younger brother only nodded not trusting his words as the tears continued to fall from his eyes.

"Tell everyone I love them and I'm sorry, and tell Shane that if he doesn't ask phoebe out I'm going to come back and haunt him till he dose" Jason said trying to lighten the mood.

Anthony Smiled at his brothers attempt to at humor prowed of his brothers bravery.

Suddenly the ground started shaking the buildings foundations crumbling.

"Quick Anthony leave before its to late!" Jason shouted to his brother.

"Good bye Jason" Anthony said as he ran down the stairs and through the broken window he came from.

'Never would have though I'd die like this,still could have bin worse could have drown,could have been eaten by a shark, or worse drown while being eaten by a shark' Jason thought as he tried to keep his kind off of what is about to happen to him.

Jason looked at the burning building start to collapse when debris from the third floor fell and trapped his leg.

"Shit!" Jason scream in pain as he tried to move the debris off his leg. Jason looked around to see of there was anything that could help get his leg free when he felt a pain in the back of his head and started to lose consciousness.

'Well at least I won't feel pain' Jason thought as he past out.

(Seen change)

"Urg" Jason said as he woke up,"what happened?" Jason asked him self as he stood up uneasily to the ground,"last thing I remember is" Jason stopped talking as he remembered what happened to him the building on fire the baby he saved and how he was trapped underneath a burning log.

'I thought I was a goner there for a minute' Jason said as he looked at his leg to see how bad it looked but when he pulled up his pants leg it looked good as new.'what there's not a scratch on me I was sure that my leg was burned and broken' Jason thought as he jumped up and down on the spot to test out his leg and see if he could walk and found out it felt fine.

"Where am I?" Jason said as he looked around and noticed he was in some kind of forest if all the trees he could see and all the insects he could hear all around him was any indication .

"Wow how did I end up in a forest" Jason said as he started walking through the forest to try and find help."mom and dad are going to kill me when I get home" Jason said as he walked,Jason walked for what felt like hours his legs was starting to hurt from all the walking so Jason decide to rest for a while and saw a big log in the distance that looked comfortable,once he reached the log he sat down on it and started to fall asleep until he felt the ground start shaking jumping up Jason tried to steady him self but when he jumped of the log the shaking stopped it was then he realised that the ground wasn't shaking the log was, turning back towards the log Jason could now see that the log wasn't a log after all but some kind of tree monster.

"Who dares use me as a bed!" The tree monster shouted as he looked around till he spotted Jason.

"You dare use me as a bed do you know who I am !" The tree monster screamed at Jason as he walked towards him.

"Ah?, no tree monster sir I don't know who you are I thought you was a log that I could sleep on" Jason said as he backed away from the scary tree monster scared of what it mite do.

" I am Woodmon and you dare mistake me for some log I will destroy you for insulting me like that prepare to be deleted!" Shouted the tree monster know as Woodmon as he ran towards Jason.

"Wait can't we talk about this!" Jason shouted over his shoulder as ran for his life.

[End flashback]

"Leaf slider!" Woodmon shouted and razor sharp leafs shot from his hands towards Jason.

Jason looked behind him when he heard something coming behind him what he saw was what looked like leafs coming towards him thinking fast Jason dropped to the ground as the leafs flu past him and destroyed a tree that was ahead of him.

'Wow this things going to kill me if I don't get away from him' Jason though as he continued running, Jason was looking around for anyway to get away from the monster chasing him but wasn't paying attention to what what was in front of him that was until he hit into something something big with fur he then fell to ground.

'Great what now?' Jason thought as he looked up and sawâ€¦|.
